

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

JENNIFER R. HANCOCK )
v. ) No. 3-09-0307
CITY OF GOODLETTSVILLE )

O R D E R

Counsel for the parties called the Court on June 1, 2010, at which time they requested that a settlement conference be scheduled before the undersigned.

As a result, the telephone conference call, scheduled by order entered May 20, 2010 (Docket Entry No. 35), on June 4, 2010, is CANCELLED.

A settlement conference is SCHEDULED on Friday, June 11, 2010, beginning at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom 764, U.S. Courthouse, 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN.

Counsel for the parties shall attend the settlement conference, along with the plaintiff, Mayor John Finch, City Administrative Jim Lee, and Chief of Police Richard Pope.<sup>1</sup>

Counsel for each party shall be prepared to present a brief opening statement (5 to 10 minutes) in the courtroom at the beginning of the settlement conference. The parties shall be prepared to devote the entire day to the settlement conference, if necessary.

By 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 8, 2010, the parties shall deliver under seal, directly to Ms. Jeanne Cox, Courtroom Deputy to the undersigned, or to Mr. Steve Wilson or Mr. Peter Malanchuk, law clerks to the undersigned, or provide by facsimile transmission (615-736-7070) ex parte, separate settlement conference statements which shall specify their respective settlement <sup>1</sup> The Court understands that a final settlement will have to be approved by the Board of Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Goodlettsville. However, the representatives present at the settlement conference shall have the ability to recommend to the Board whether to approve any tentative settlement reached.

positions. If a settlement conference statement is provided by fax, it is not necessary to deliver the original.

1) Each statement is to be furnished only to the Court and not to the other parties. The statements shall not be e-filed or otherwise filed with the Clerk of Court.

2) In their respective statements, counsel for the parties shall make a candid assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of each party's position in the case and shall give a good faith opinion (expressed as a percentage) of each client's probable success on the merits, and each client's probable success on the damages sought and/or relief requested by the plaintiff.

a) Plaintiff's statement shall contain an assessment from the plaintiff's viewpoint of her damages and the strengths and weaknesses of her position.

b) Defendant's statement shall contain an assessment of the plaintiff's damages, defendant's exposure to those damages, and the respective strengths and weaknesses of defendant's position.

3) Each statement shall include a brief overview of the facts and a summary of the party's view of the law as to their theory of liability or defense.

4) Nothing in the way of a jury speech shall be contained in the settlement conference statements.

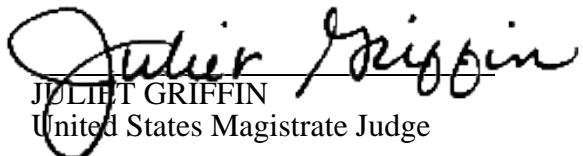

5) Each statement shall contain an assessment of the economic cost of proceeding to trial, including attorney fees and expenses that have already been incurred and attorney fees and expenses that will be incurred if this case is not settled.

6) Each settlement conference statement also shall contain a statement of counsel's best judgment as to the amount which should be paid or received by his or her client in a settlement of the case and all other terms and conditions of such a settlement, based on counsel's written evaluation and opinion and after a full discussion of the opinion with the client.

7) The statement shall include the maximum amount the defendant may be willing to pay and the minimum amount the plaintiff may be willing to accept, and any other term upon which each client insists.<sup>2</sup>

8) Each statement shall recount with specificity the settlement discussions between the parties to date.

It is so ORDERED.

JULIET GRIFFIN
United States Magistrate Judge
